This Month's Highlights

Greetings, Sound Connections Family!

As I write this, Kansas City is bracing for a 103-degree day that has a heat and travel warning issued for the entire state. Now I remember one of the main reasons the Music Ministry Team voted to move Sound Connections Music Conference at Unity Village back to its September date where it began eight years ago. Even with the awesome Unity pool open in July, few had time to enjoy the benefits because there was so much to do.

The move to July two years ago was to benefit our many Music Directors who teach in the fall and therefore could not attend an event that early in the school year. And we did get a lot of new faces in 2010 and 2011 but we also lost a few faces too so, attendance wise, it evened out. However, for our Music Team and for many of the presenters and artists who graced Sound Connections in the past, summer was just too busy of a time to take out for a week in the Heartland.

Our roster is changing and evolving now, but the workshop schedule we have printed in this issue (pg 4) will give you a pretty good idea of what's in store.

We're proud to honor Emmy Award-winning songwriter and singer Faith Rivera as our Grace Note Award recipient this year. The Grace Note Award is given for "outstanding contribution to New Thought music." This has been artists who have helped spread our music to new mainstream audiences or have taken the quality and scope of our music to new levels of quality and exposure. Past recipients since 2006 are Carmen Mosier, LeRoy White, Jana Stanfield, Karen Drucker, Devotion and Karen Taylor Good. If you've ever had Faith Rivera to your church or seen her live and would like to add your congratulations, check out page 5 to find out how.

This month's free sheet music offering is one of my favorite songs by Faith, "Called to Be" (pgs 16-17). It is taken from a brand-new songbook entitled 101 Inspiring Songs: The Ultimate New Thought Fake Book. That's right—over a hundred songs in lead sheet format in a fabulous book published by the world's largest publisher of print music, Hal Leonard. Yes, it's a big deal. Read more in our Book Review (pg 8).

Resources for very small music departments (pg 9), directions to our new Online Choral Library (pg 15), and a link to our new Music Director's Listing (pg 1) all round out another great issue of Sound Connections.
Enjoy!

Privileged to serve you,

Help Honor This Year's Grace Note Award Recipient!

By Jennifer Ferren

Attention, Everyone! It's time for Grace Note Award participation!

This year's recipient is our beloved Faith Rivera. She has blessed our presence at many Posi and New Thought conferences and concerts throughout the world.

We are thrilled to be honoring her with the 2012 Grace Note Award for outstanding achievement in New Thought Music at this year's 2012 Sound Connections New Thought Music Conference at Unity Village this September.

No presentation would be complete without collective energy, so again, as in years past, we are asking you to send in written, audio or video "shout outs," as well as photos, photos, photos and any raw video clips you may have. Whatever you send, please be sure to include your name, what church you may be affiliated with, and a way to contact you back in case we need any further info from you. Also include a photo of yourself!

The best way to get info in is via email to Jennifer Ferren at jferrensings@aol.com. If you have video clips, any large files, or photos that need to be scanned and returned, you can mail info to: Jennifer Ferren, 186 Fay Drive, Kennesaw GA 30144.

Please get all info in by August 15 so we can start creating! We look forward to having you share your energy and will be sure to post the presentation to YouTube after the live ceremony on Friday, September 21, 2012. We are sending all of you lots of love and appreciation for helping us co-create another spectacular presentation for one of our most treasured Posi/New Thought artists.

Thanks!

CD Reviews

Within by Kelly Corsino

Reviewed by Richard Mekdeci

If you've been wondering if there are any kick-butt New Thought soul songs out there for us to use in our churches, you can stop wondering. Long Beach artist Kelly Corsino's debut project, Within, gives us nine tracks of full-blown, Motown-flavored, high-energy, New Thought-messaged songs fully produced with background vocals, horns, and orchestra.

This project roared on to the Posi Music scene at last year's Posi Awards with three nods from this one CD. The title track made it through to the finals of the 2011 Posi Awards and appears on the 7th Annual Posi Award Nominees compilation. Track 5, "Power of Love," was also recognized in the Honorable Mention category. And the final track "Beautiful" was a finalist in the Posi Award's first Posi Music Video recognition.

The real gem for me though, was not finding these great songs, but discovering the singer that brings them to us. The sheer power and soul of Kelly's voice makes this CD an exciting listen and worth the purchase price.

When the opening song "Within" kicks off, you'll think you're listening to a cover of Aretha's "Respect." In fact each song will remind you of a song from the Motown era with a couple exceptions: Kelly and producer/co-writer Stuart Pearson drift from the formula a bit for the gospel-flavored "Filling Up," the dark yet optimistic "I'm Not Damaged," and the tender pop ballad "Beautiful," a tender dedication to America's homeless. There's no doubt that Kelly owns these songs and they become the vehicle for the singer to do what she does best—wail!

The flavor is Motown soul in its beat, sound and delivery but what you'll find that is original is that old familiar feel-good genre with New Thought messages that we can all relate to and use in church!

All in all, Within is irresistible in its unique nostalgia and in the voice that carries the entire CD full throttle from start to finish.

Now I Begin and Let There Be Light

By Roger Tomhave and Friends
Two reviews by Sue K Riley

Part of an amazing ensemble named New Day that is based in Fairfax, Va., Roger writes catchy songs with positive messages. Most of the songs on Now I Begin are perfect for use in any spiritual center.

“The Mantel Song,” which was nominated for an emPower Posi Award in the True Story category, is a sweet song telling the back story of photos on a mantel. I know that I have photos that were my Grandma’s and I don’t even know who the people are in the pictures. I love this song which connects generations through faded photos.

“Love, Love, Love” is co-written with Roger’s long-time collaborator Daniel Johnson and it is a rocker. Lending itself easily to harmony in any size group, this song reminds us that everything is possible when we have love.

“Fill a Cup” is a call-to-action song. It sometimes feels that there is nothing one person can do to make a difference in anything. This song reminds us that each of us can do small things that will have cascading, rippling effects. It is a song of gratitude and abundance, inviting the listener to consider sharing their gifts with those less fortunate.

There are two lovely Christmas songs on the Let There Be Light CD. “One Light,” which is a candle lighting song reminding us that we are all lights burning together and that we can hold onto that feeling of goodwill that we experience around Christmas and shine our lights year-round.

“One Small Voice” is a song of the shepherd who first saw the North Star. Even though he had just one small voice, he was unafraid to share his song with the world. It reminds us that we all have gifts to share and even though we may not see the immediate impact of our gift, there will be an impact.

All in all, both of these CDs are filled with well-written, musical songs that will uplift any Music Ministry. Roger has a songbook also with well-crafted Lead Sheets.

Keep up the beautiful work, Roger!

Book Review

101 Inspiring Songs: The Ultimate New Thought Fake Book

It's official: New Thought has it's very own fake book and it's published by Hal Leonard! Kudos to Charylu Roberts and Doug LeBow for producing this project and selling the idea to the world's largest publisher of printed music.

101 Inspiring Songs is the second book in the "Spirit Calls" series, named after the first songbook of New Thought artists ever published by a major publisher.

As a fake book, you'll have the melody line, the chord symbols and the words, but no piano score. This enabled Doug and Charylu to get over 100 songs, an entire New Thought library, into one great book.

There's no doubt that this book is a must-have for any New Thought music director or for any New Thought library. But if you are a traveling musician who plays in Unity or New Thought churches, or honestly any church or inspirational venue, this book is invaluable.

This is a high-quality product that lays flat on your music stand and is easy to read and use.

The songwriters contained in this book are the "who's who" of our New Thought and Posi Music world. Here are just a few of the artists who have contributed their music to this great project (in alphabetical order):

Dana Agnellini, Robert
Anderson, Karl Anthony,
David Ault, Marcy

Resources for Churches With No Music Director

Richard,

My church has no music director. We play CDs and sing along with the words projected overhead. I can't deal with books of music or recorded musical accompaniment that does not feature the tune which the congregation sings. Is there any Unity music for us on the market? I have Unite With Me in Song. I download music from the Internet when it fits our needs. But, as you know, traditional tunes usually do not have New Thought words and I will not use them.

Blessings,

Nancy Willingham

Unity of Clermont, Fla.

Hey Nancy,

There are three resources that have tracks with the melodies. The first is Jennifer Ferren's Wings of Song collection—the best songs from our red hymnal—two versions of each, with vocals and w/o vocals with a flute playing the melody for your song leader. Jennifer's email is jferrensings@aol.com.

From Unity Worldwide Ministries:

- There is the Spirit Is Joy songbook, which has a tracks CD sold separately. There are musical cues for the melody all throughout. Item # 2255. Performance Tracks CD is #2256.
- Finally (for now) there is the Songs From a World Awakening songbook with 21 songs in lead sheet form, a data CD with full scores and liner notes, and an audio CD with a piano playing the scores, sans vocal. That is item #2250.

Both books are available in the Shop at www.unityworldwideministries.org.

Check out www.empowerma.com for hundreds of .99 cent downloads of New Thought songs and sheet music.

Many artists have tracks to their music. Daniel Nahmod sells his on the emPower site. Karen Drucker, Jana Stanfield, Faith Rivera all have tracks available for most of their best-known songs.

Rickie Byars Beckwith's Agape choir CDs are also useful in your case. They are congregational songs like "I Release and I Let Go," "Use Me," "Pour Yourself in Me," etc. These are not tracks, your congregation sings along with the Agape choir.

Hope that helps for now.

Again With the “Official. Approved. Updated and Copyrighted” Lyrics to the “Peace Song.”

Richard,

I need some information please. We hold a Peace Celebration each September. It is inclusive of many of the faith communities and we end with the “peace song.” (“Let There Be Peace on Earth”) I think each church/etc. uses different words and I want to use the “officially approved” ones. I think I know, but I want to be totally sure. Can you send them to me or tell me where to find?

Thanks and love to you both,
Rev. Terry Lund, Unity of Las Cruces, N. Mex.

Rev. Terry,

Thanks for checking. This is an ongoing discussion it seems but I’m on a mission to get us all on the same page when singing our “peace song” (“Let There Be Peace on Earth”).

I’ve printed them below, but anyone who needs confirmation can go to www.jan-leemusic.com. It tells the history of “Let There Be Peace on Earth” and lists other songs written by Jill Jackson and Sy Miller.

I left the discussion about peace song replacements from last month in this issue. (See below.) If you are torn between singing your church’s “special” lyrics and honoring the wishes of the songwriters, maybe it’s time to look at a different option for closing your service. R

Copyrighted Lyrics for “Let There Be Peace on Earth”

By Jill Jackson and Sy Miller

Let there be peace on earth And let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth, The peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father, Brothers all are we,
Let me walk with my brother In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, Let this be the moment now;
With every step I take, Let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment
In peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

Copyrighted alternate lyrics:

With God our Creator Family all are we,
Let us walk with each other In perfect harmony.

Or

With Earth as our Mother Family all are we,
Let us walk with each other In perfect harmony.

Suggestions for Peace Song Substitutions

Hi Richard,

How's it going? Our Music Director is considering changing the peace song at the end of Sunday Service and has asked me to submit some choices. I know this is one of your soap boxes so I'd like to hear your thoughts.

Looking forward to this year's SoCo. Gonna be fun!
Kaye Persons

Dear Kaye,

My only soapbox with the peace song ("Let There Be Peace on Earth") is if you do it, do it with the approved, preferred lyrics.

Your music director isn't alone. A lot of churches are trying other songs to end their services. Two that come to mind are Ricki Byars' "Blessed Always" and Daniel Nahmod's "Love Is My Decision." I'm copying the rest of the music team to see what kind of list we can come up with.

R

PS—Karen Drucker has suggested her song "Stand" which is used in many churches as a closing song. www.karendrucker.com

Kaye,

I agree with honoring the correct and approved lyrics if the peace song is used. Using unapproved alternate lyrics, especially when the composer and lyricist have specifically asked us not to, is a breach of integrity.

I am experimenting with using a different closing song each month for the whole month. So far, we have done the traditional spiritual, "This Little Light of Mine," the chorus only to Scott Kalechstein's "Eyes of God," and chorus only to Rich Fagan's "God Is." For our Wednesday night services at Unity FW, we used to use Richards Mekdeci's "I Am the Love of God." Blessings on us as we look for alternatives. Team? Who wants to write one?

Love,

Melinda Allen

Unity's New Online Choral Library Now Available

Unity Worldwide Ministries is now your source for New Thought choral music. After publishing many books of songs primarily for solo and congregation, we have developed a new online distribution model especially suited to choral music.

As director of a choir or small vocal ensemble, you can download and print the required number of copies for your group. To help you choose just the right song, samples of the audio and sheet music, as well as complete lyrics, are as close as your internet connection. If your minister gives you a topic for a service, you can look up lyrics by subject, or search for keywords found in the lyrics on the site.

For a small choir (up to 10 members) full choral arrangements are $15.00. For a larger choir the price is $25.00. Unity Worldwide Ministries has selected Heart Wind Music, LLC, David Ezell, President, as the sheet music host site for the library. (See links below.) Audio for many of the songs in the library is available from empower Music and Arts.

Submissions will be an ongoing process, so if you have a choral arrangement of an existing New Thought song or an original choral song for any theme or special service, you can help us build a huge library of available material for you to have at your fingertips.

Submission Criteria

- We are asking for "print-ready" arrangements in PDF format, professionally transcribed in Sibelius or Finale formats with piano or lead sheet and voice parts included. (Contact Richard Mekdeci for a list of qualified arrangers who can help prepare your scores for publication.)
- When possible, please include an MP3 audio of the song being performed. This does not have to be a professionally-done studio recording, but enough to give the buyer an idea of the complexity and feel. A good-quality, live church performance should be adequate in most cases.
- Please include a lyric sheet for each title and a suggested usage for each song (e.g., Christmas, Volunteer Sunday, Burning Bowl, general use, etc.).
- Songs will be screened for quality, sing-ability, and lyric content to insure compatibility with New Thought theology.
- If you submit an arrangement to an existing song that you did not write, you should have permission from the songwriter for that arrangement. When you are paid for sales, you will be responsible for compensating the authors through whatever agreement you have with them.

To select and purchase choral music, you can go to <http://www.heartwindmusic.com/unwomionchli.html>.

For information about submitting songs for inclusion in the library, go to <http://www.heartwindmusic.com/absusotobein.html>.
