2009 IYOU Event

Deborah is a licensed Unity teacher and Unity minister ordained in 2006.

Deborah has served with Unity Worldwide Ministries in a leadership capacity for 15 years. She has been engaged in strategic capacity building functions for Unity Worldwide Ministries members including spiritual education for all ages, credentialing, leadership development, ministry expansion and development, and worldwide support.

During her time at UWM, Deborah has developed a reset of IYOU through an Appreciative Inquiry Summit; a Credentialing Team to harmonize paths and identify clear standards; the Transformation Experience Thriving

Ministries Pilot and Enlightened Leaders; Leadership Resource Guides; Unity Worldwide Spiritual Institute; Unique Expressions; and Spiritual Explorers. Deborah served on the Academic Governance Council and as adjunct faculty for Unity Institute. She has obtained grants from the John Templeton Foundation. She has spoken and presented workshops at Unity People's Conventions, regional conferences, and Unity ministries.

Prior to ministerial training, Deborah created many programs and chaired executive level project teams involving education, training, innovation, quality improvement, and leadership and organizational development. She designed innovative curriculum, taught, and mentored others in public schools, college, churches, and business and professional settings. She was the Founder and President of Lifelong Learning, an educational consulting business dedicated to advancing learning strategies based on brain research. She has drawn from these experiences in her work with UWM.

Deborah delights in nurturing the gifts of others and facilitating their growth, development, and transformation.
