Rev. Dr. Glenn Mosley was ordained a Unity minister in 1961 at age 23 and dedicated his life to Unity. He held two doctorate and master's degrees and was a lifelong learner. He led the Association of Unity Churches, now Unity Worldwide Ministries (UWM), as president/CEO from 1985 to 2005. He served on the Board of Trustees at UWM from 1968 to 1977 and was chair in 1971-1972.

In his 60 years in ministry, Glenn served ministries in Flushing and Manhattan, New York; Detroit, Michigan; Akron, Ohio; Sheboygan, Wisconsin; St. Louis, Missouri; and Vancouver, British Columbia. He was also a judge for the Templeton Prize for Progress in Religion and served as a Trustee and Advisor for the John Templeton Foundation and an Honorary Member for the other Templeton philanthropies.

His wife, Rev. Martha Mosley, and son, Glenn Mosley Jr. (Bud), worked alongside him at UWM for many years. Glenn made his transition at age 86 on January 25, 2022.
