A resource for pioneering leaders

SAVE THE DATE! Our next web-call for is Thursday, August 27th at 2:00 pm Central

Key leadership of pioneering/expansion ministries--and all other Unity leaders too-- are invited to join us on this call: ministers, licensed Unity teachers, spiritual leaders, board/steering committee members and staff.

Our next Expansion Leaders Web Call

Answering the Call: Beyond the Walls

Thursday, August 27th at 2:00 pm Central

With Rev. Myra McFadden and Rev. Lonnie Vanderslice

Look around and notice. Who isn't there? How do we live our principles of unity and love with those who seem forgotten in our midst?

Most ministers have plenty to do. They don't need another "good idea" to implement. Yet, sometimes there's a calling from the heart to minister in ways that can't be ignored. It's where our communities go beyond offering space, and instead desire to minister to those with unique needs for healing, peace and nurturance that changes lives. The Expansion Ministries of the future will answer this call and go beyond merely growing spiritual communities. They will minister to those who are underserved, forgotten and ignored. Compassion, honor and respect will be the foundation of these ministries that emulate the ministry of Jesus who dearly loved and served all people, bar none. "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God." I John 4:7.

Rev. Myra McFadden began her involvement with Unity in Wisconsin in 1995 when she was spiritually guided through meditation to "seek a church to serve in." Not having any idea about what the message meant, she decided to check out an obscure little church not far from where she lived. The Unity church she walked into immediately became her spiritual home, and the teachings of Unity soon became the heart and soul of her spirituality. Myra then focused on leadership in Unity by teaching and speaking at various churches in Wisconsin while completing the Licensed Unity Teacher program in 2005. The undeniable call to ministry came to her at the

Reading from DAILY WORD, Unity's daily message:

Daily Word Date: Thursday, January 20, 2011

The Word for today: Overcoming

The Affirmation: I can accomplish anything through the Christ Presence of my being.

As I work toward a goal, attempt to overcome a challenge or try to change an unwanted behavior, obstacles may arise. In the past, these obstacles may have kept me from success, but not this time.

What is different this time? This time, I am conscious of the Christ of my being. Through the power of the divine within me, I can accomplish anything.

This time, I correct my thinking and get out of my own way. Instead of doubting the power of the Christ within, I look for evidence of support--divine ideas when I feel an impasse, peace when I feel anxious, and confidence when I temporarily lose my way.

Through the Christ of my being, I am able to do all things.

Moment of Silence:

Let us take a few moments in the Silence to reflect.

Affirmation repeated: I can accomplish anything through the Christ Presence of my being.

Scripture: I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.--Philippians 3:14

And so it is ----AMEN!

end of her LUT studies, and she soon left her home and work as a psychotherapist in private practice to enter ministerial school at Unity Institute in 2006.

During ministerial school Myra worked on the prayer call lines at Silent Unity in the telephone prayer ministry and developed a spiritual counseling program for the congregation of Unity Village Chapel at Unity Village, Missouri. She also served the congregation at Unity of Manhattan in Manhattan, Kansas by being their Student Minister for one year in 2008. Myra completed a church internship with Unity of Kansas City North, and then became Associate Minister upon graduation from Unity Institute in June 2009. She became the Senior Minister of Unity of Kansas City North in June 2011.

Rev. Lonnie Vanderslice was graduated from Unity Institute with a Master of Divinity and ordained in June, 2015. Lonnie has served on the Expansion / Alternative Ministry Team since August 2014 and volunteers in the Expansion office at UWM. Lonnie has a passion for bringing Unity principles alive to the disempowered and invisible / forgotten people outside the walls of the church. Lonnie's proposal for a new alternative Unity ministry, Unity of Spirit, was approved in July, 2015. The vision of Unity of Spirit is to function "without walls" using the communities space wherever they gather for talks, classes, counseling, etc. The intention of this ministry is to provide a way to "fill the gaps" between the secular and the spiritual, providing a pathway for those who are seeking but have not yet found any kind of a church home. This might include teaching in addiction recovery facilities, transitional living spaces; gated recovery communities, women's shelters, homeless communities, as well as other venues where there are other un-churched but open spiritual seekers.

Lonnie is a regular speaker at Living Serenity, a Sunday evening service with a special invitation to people in recovery and their families, a ministry of Unity of Kansas City North. Lonnie and her wife Kelly own a soft furnishings business, Weave Gotcha Covered!, where Lonnie serves as Vice President. The social action business is located at 803 E 27th Street in Kansas City Missouri and provides jobs through Sister Berta's 100 Jobs for 100 Mom's program to recovering women.

Join us for this webinar on August 27th at 2pm as Rev. Myra McFadden of Unity of Kansas City North and Rev. Lonnie Vanderslice of Unity of Spirit present a vision for answering the call beyond the walls.

More Resources for Expansion Leaders

Facebook private page for expansion ministers, spiritual leaders

If you are a minister or spiritual leader, you are invited to join a private Facebook page for expansion leaders. We give thanks to Donna Kopitsky, Unity of Connellsville, Pennsylvania stepping up to be the administrator of the page. There are two ways to become a member of the expansion leaders Facebook page:

1. Send an email to Donna revdonna@unityofconnellsville.org
2. Or go to: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/unityexpansion/> and click on the “Join” button and Donna will receive an email and then add you.

Also on Facebook: Unity Minister’s Discussion Group private page: Spiritual Leaders (ministers, LUTs) of an expansion ministry are invited by host Rev. Toni Boehm to join this private group of mostly Unity ministers. It is a wonderful resource for ideas and support. Requests to join with your name, title, and ministry may be sent to revtboehm@aol.com.

Rev. Margee Grounds, Southwest Regional E-Blog is another great resource for expansion leaders—it’s full of practical, positive, inspiring info not just for folks in the Southwest Region. Margee welcomes everyone to her mailing list. Send your request to join with your name, title, and ministry to revmargee@gmail.com

July 2014

Classes / Units of Development

These units of instruction are non-sequential. As they will be offered at various times of the year, a participant in the spiritual leadership development program can take them in any order, or even take them more than once if desired.

Unit One: Introduction / Review Application of Spiritual Principles⁶

In this 10 week unit, basic spiritual principles common to Twelve Step programs and Unity principles will be reviewed. The purpose of this class is to create opportunity for a group to bond emotionally, and to normalize as to their level of understanding of spiritual principles.

Unit Two: Communication Skills: Listening and Sharing⁷

In this 10 week unit, participants will build on common ground to learn peer listening skills. Self-awareness of “monkey mind”, judgmental attitudes, and other unhelpful thinking and behaviors will be identified. Non-violent communication techniques will be taught, and participants will learn to listen in a way that supports 12-step processes (5th step inventories, 10th step inventories, sponsorship.)

Unit Three: Self-Care and Developing Healthy Boundaries⁸

Self-care is critical to the ability to minister to others in a healthy manner. Spiritual Intelligence is based on Physical Intelligence and appropriate boundaries.⁹

In this unit individuals will develop a self-care plan and checklists as needed to allow better balance in their busy lives. Basic calendaring and planning methods will be taught, to move them from crisis mode to planning mode. Importance of self-care (food, sleep, emotional needs) will be re-emphasized, as the foundation for healthy relationship interactions.

Healthy boundaries will be discussed as they relate to interpersonal relationships, community, and ethical conduct.

Unit Four: Self-Inventory: Motives and Ethics

In the fourth unit, motives and ethics based on belief systems will be examined. Self-appraisal will be outlined and common motives examined. An ethical code of conduct that fits the community ethics will be developed and discussed. Individuals will learn their “hot buttons” and traps, and become aware of their blind spots that lead them into bad behavior.

Amethyst Place
Spiritual Leadership Development Program
July 2014

Unit Five: Co-dependency / Healthy Relationships¹⁰

In this unit, the relationships within the greater community will be discussed. How do you enlist volunteers without guilt / resentment? How do you do service for others without compromising self-care? How do you avoid – or get out of – the emotional traps that occur when the unexpected happens? How do you deal with another’s questionable behavior or requests that compromise your belief system? Questions about dynamics such as these will be discussed in the context of the community of Amethyst Place.

Unit Six: God as YOU Understand God

Amidst pressures from society and family and community, it can be difficult to find a safe space in which to explore an understanding of God. The purpose of this unit is twofold. First, to allow safe space to explore theological ideas that may cause discord in the larger community; and secondly to widen the participant’s view of God to the degree that they can be non-judgmental when assisting others with these questions.

Unit Seven: Prayer and Meditation – Methods and Practices – Finding What Fits

In this unit, various methods of prayer and meditation will be explored. While various faith traditions have a method they prescribe, one size does not fit everyone’s needs. This gathering is for the purpose of allowing experimentation with methods and practices from a variety of traditions.

Unit Eight: Service to Others – Service to the Community

The heart of ministry, and the heart of the 12 Step programs, is service. In this unit, opportunities will be identified, and future programming developed, in which participants can support both individuals and Amethyst Place as a community. Sponsorship, mentoring, peer listening, and prayer support – all will be part of this unit as the participants move into leadership capacity within the community.
