Family Group Facilitator Agreement

Name: _____

If I am selected to serve as a Family Group Facilitator, I AGREE:

1. To contact my co-facilitator before the event and discuss how we will share responsibilities. Effective families have co-facilitators that work together.
2. To follow the Family material. All of the material is essential for the family members' understanding and experience of the Event.
3. Present the Bible Verse, Quote, Affirmation, Activities, Discussions, Prayers and Meditations. These are not optional activities.
4. To keep the family on topic and to keep the focus.
5. To redirect undesired behavior such as a person who monopolizes the conversation. You could possibly say, "we appreciate your contribution but we need to let everyone share".
6. To allow enough time and encourage sharing and feedback – give family members time to collect their thoughts before expecting them to share. Be comfortable with quiet!
7. To come to the IYOU Event Leadership Team with questions or concerns and seek advice if not sure of what to do in a situation.
8. To be willing to ask the sponsors in the family for assistance if there is a challenge with keeping the family on focus, unwillingness to participate or unacceptable behavior. If there are still challenges, then it is necessary to come to the IYOU Event Agent.
9. To understand the role of the sponsors in the family. They are part of the group and expected to share but not to give advice, lecture or share extensively with regard to their personal situations. If there is a challenge in this area, talk with the IYOU Event Agent.
10. To come to the Event completely prepared knowing that the success of the family is dependent upon the willingness and readiness of the facilitators—this includes practicing the material, especially meditations, and being very clear on how to present it, as well as contacting your co-facilitator before the event and bringing a watch to keep track of time.
