Estimated cost of sponsorship: $5,255

Dear future sponsor this is my Unity story:

I am Ogunfuwa Sunday Seyi from Ibadan, South West Nigeria. I was born and raised in Isese home and community. Isese is a spiritual practice of the Yoruba people. It means the original practice from our ancestral inception.

After my secondary school education, I decided to walk away from the community and to join some Christian Pentecostal groups because I needed some personal answers about my life I could not get from Isese. I wanted to be part of what was popular and mainstream.

After couple of years I started having a feeling of dissatisfaction within me about the way the biblical texts were interpreted. I decided to seek spiritual truth on my own.

I read many books and materials which helped to open my mind. I realized that truth can be found everywhere only if I am willing to take responsibility and align with the light of my inner being while being God pointed and guided in my desires.

I started developing interest in Isese again. I joined few online groups from where I got to meet Mr. Akinsola Solanke, a Unity spiritual leader. His ways resonated with me. Quickly, I got to like his persona because of how he flowed with the young and old while sharing his brand of truth subtly without getting on the nerves of others nor imposing his ideas. He is supportive and has good understanding of so many things.

At a point, he approached me with the idea of joining a meditation group. I consented and the meditation practices have been helping me unfold tremendously. It has also been helping me to get in touch and align with my Ori (Divinity). I started taking keen interest in his writings, words and online posts on Facebook and WhatsApp platforms we both belong to. He became my mentor.

After a while, he recommended I read the Introduction to Charles Fillmore's Metaphysical Bible Interpretation and Discover the Power Within You by Eric Butterworth. I really found the books interesting and applicable to my daily life. I gained fresh perspectives about how to interpret Bible Stories Metaphysical Bible interpretations, and from Discover the Power Within You. They both stirred an awakening within me. I now know that in my uniqueness I matter most in my spiritual journey.

From there I started taking serious interest in Unity teachings and started visiting some Unity churches and groups websites and blogs like truthunity.net. I particularly love Unity because it has helped me to be able to explain to myself most of our Isese practices from metaphysical perspectives.

Isese centers on the alignment with our Ori (Divinity) and ase (life energy) of all substance. All these and more are integral parts of Unity teachings.

I am a member of UnityOnline Prayer Support Network (UPSNet). I read Dailyword and I use it for morning prayer and devotion with my family daily. I have read and internalized the Unity Five Principles. Personally, I use Prayer of Protection daily to shield myself and family.

I have been in Unity for one year.

Sincerely,

Ogunfuwa Sunday Seyi
