

- Co-founder and former Executive Director of The Sewing Labs, a vocational training center to teach at-risk individuals a skill so they can work in businesses employing seamstresses. Last year we provided over 2500 hours of instruction to 68 individuals.
- Certified Peer Specialist at Amethyst Place, providing addiction counseling and spiritual support to the 38 women that live there with their children. The Unity principles (and New Thought in general) are the basis upon which many of the 12 Step program principles are founded, and there is a perfect fit.
- Co-host Spirit of Recovery – on Unity Online Radio, a radio show dedicated to illuminating the common path between Unity principles and 12 Step principles. The audience is the general public, and designed to draw folks in addiction recovery into the Unity fold by highlighting the path of similarities.
- Adjunct Instructor, Unity Worldwide Spiritual Institute – teaching Healing and Wholeness to interested Unity students.
- Unity of Spirit – an alternative ministry through which I provide services to the general public. (This is really low volume because so many of my activities are covered by other organizations.)
- Currently serve on the Licensing and Ordination Team, serving future ministers and the Unity Movement
- Served on the Credentialing and Standards Team, serving the Unity Movement
- Served on the Social Action Subcommittee of the Focusing Forward Team, serving the Unity Movement
- Serve as a Mentor at the request of the Membership Services Team

Basically, wherever there is an opportunity to bring the Unity message forward, I do that.
